What's this all about?

The first 50 students to read a book from four different authors and return their paperwork to the library will have the opportunity to attend the Fourth Annual Cavalcade of Authors Event on Friday, March 9th, 2012. Students will attend four writing workshops each put on by a different Cavalcade Author, eat lunch while listening to music and sharing with friends, get books and personal items signed at the autographing session, and have the opportunity to ask our Young Adult writers all those burning questions during an author panel.
